- Oct. 15th Auction. Bring in your gear you are not planning on using and auction it off for cash. While hunting gear for this auction please note the following. The Indianapolis Radio Club is going to operate a small radio school for the youngsters of the center and a lot of radio gear will be needed. If you find a good piece of radio apparatus that the youngsters can use to build up beginners radio sets won't you donate to the club and its school. Good usable gear is wanted and not old burnt out junk. Just a little from each fellow will be just the thing and not deplete your good junk box either. This is the answer of the Indianapolis Radio Club to the fact that the average age of the amateur is increasing ever upward. Teach them radio while they are young and they will become hams early and make the wheels hum in the club. One for the auction, one for the school, etc.

PAST PROGRAMS

Mr. John Kleinhenz of the Indpls Water Co. screened his new production, "At Your Service-Willing Water". This was an open meeting but only one member showed up with his wife. We want a larger turn out of members and their families when we have such general interest meetings. The 7th and 8th was registration day for the code and theory school at Tech High School. On the 10th of Sept., a regular business meeting the new proposed constitution was read, discussed and changed in accordance with the suggestions after they were hashed out. (Voting for its adoption to be held the 8th of Oct. Our code school started the 13th. Mr. Wuster of RCA talked to the club on the 17th on Modern Trends in Receiver Design. He predicted smaller and smaller receiver and components. Mr. Charles Compton demonstrated and talked on "Vibrator Power Supplies on Sept. 24th.

REPORTING

Next issue of Amachewer will carry a listing of paid up members of the club and show those eligible to hold office. This in view of the fact that next month will see the slates gotten up for our new officers to be elected the first meeting in December. If you have not checked with the treasurer, do so this month so that your name will be listed for the election.

Remember. to look in your junk box for good surplus to be used for the club sponsored Community Center radio school. Your time at a meeting to help instruct them will also be appreciated. Let the secretary know that you are available.

By the way, Paul Nelson, W9BHC is our new secretary. We had a card from Joe Brand, our former secretary, in New Mexico requesting a copy of Amachewer. He is being sent this copy. (Get it Joe?) The secretary has his address and we will publish it next month when it once again comes into our hands.

We have t happy events to announce this issue of Amachewer.

1. Linda Faith Sugioka arrived at the house of Jim Sugioka Aug. 24th. Mother has just enrolled in the code school so she can get a ticket and keep in touch with "Pop" while he is on the road. Congratulations and thanks for the "Se-gars" passed out at club. (See what you miss by not being at all the meetings.
2. James Harris Butler, the new Junior cpr. of Harry Butler spent his first few days in an incubator because he arrived a little early but is now home and keeping the om up during the day. (Dad is on the night shift now.) Our congratulations to Harry and his wife. (Seems we will have to have a baby show before long.

While reporting the above news to ye ed Harry told that he is working our old friend W9JTY, Max Stout on 14,050 KC, Maritime Mobile.

WANTED

Items to help fill this space up in future issues of Amachewer. If we can't get something out of the old man we will send future copies of our paper to the Mrs. We know that she will tell all about the OM. Don't hide the paper from her anyway, we want her to read it from front to back and prod the OM into taking her to club when we have general interest meetings and why not take advantage of the fact that certain nights at the center can be had to have a supper and get together. Gosh, I'm hungry, let's get started right away.

IRCC COUNCIL

The Indiana Radio Club Council will meet in Room "E" of the YMCA, 310 North Illinois St., Indianapolis, Ind. Sunday Oct. 10th, 1948. Club delegates have been notified by mail. Your delegates from the Indianapolis Radio Club are D. J. Angus, Robert Caskey, Paul Nelson, and Ray Forbes. They can be contacted to bring matters before the assembly, do it now so that they can get ideas from other members of the club. A director from the Central Division will soon be elected and we want a man from Indiana so let's all plan to vote for the man the Council proposes to run.
